

ANNOUNCEMENT

6 July 2018

AMOVA S.à r.l. to change its corporate name into CTI Systems S.à r.l.

Dear Customers and Business Partners,

We herewith inform you that, effective as from 5 July 2018, the Luxembourg-based operations of AMOVA, AMOVA S.à r.l. located in Lentzweiler, will trade as CTI Systems S.à r.l.

This name change will not have any operational impact. The focus of CTI Systems S.à r.l. will remain on fully exploring its expertise in providing its valued customers with cutting-edge, reliable and cost-efficient solutions, serving a wide range of industrial applications in fields such as aircraft manufacturing or maintenance, surface treatment, commercial vehicles or intralogistics systems for handling and storage of heavy loads. More information on our activities may be found on our new website, www.ctisystems.com.

For the avoidance of doubt, we furthermore confirm the continuity of the legal person, meaning that CTI Systems S.à r.l. will remain bound by all obligations and rights created under AMOVA S.à r.l. The company registration number, VAT ID number and bank details of the company will remain unchanged.

Your contact persons will stay at your full disposal and the company will continue to operate at the following address:

CTI Systems S.à r.l.

Z.I. Eselborn-Lentzweiler

12, op der Sang

L-9779 Lentzweiler

Luxembourg

We would like to thank you for the excellent cooperation which we have enjoyed to date and the trust you have shown in our company. We are looking forward to continuing our close and successful business relationship.

Yours faithfully,
